CEREMONY

Reverend Clive Johnson

UK and itinerant

Interfaith Minister,

Counsellor and Celebrant

Registered member of the OneSpirit
Interfaith Ministers' Association.

Simple, alternative ceremonies, at unusual venues or using non-traditional ways of marking the occasion that are meaningful for those involved can be very special, inspiring and moving.

I am an interfaith minister, trained, ordained, supervised and supported by the One Spirit Interfaith Foundation, a charitable seminary that embraces the universal truth at the heart of all spiritual traditions, as well as supporting the interests of people who don't follow any particular faith path.

Ministry is about helping to bring the sacred into important or special moments in life. I see my role as an interfaith minister as being one of offering ceremony, words, listening, ideas, prayer, stories, guided meditation, counselling, or whatever is right for the people I have the pleasure to work with, and using whatever ways of referring to spirituality that's most meaningful for them.

UNIQUELY PERSONAL CEREMONIES

I help create and hold ceremony for various important moments in life, including reasons for celebrating, marking or holding that fall outside of the norm. Each ceremony is sensitively created for each person I have the privilege of working with to reflect what's important for them.
